RIO DE JANEIRO, SEPTEMBER 15th, 1888,

WB should not like to be understood as being inimical to Minister Ferreira Vianna's charitable schemes for beggars, orphans and other dependent members of society, but it seems clear to us that he is working altogether too much at the wrong end of the problem. The sick, the crippled and the orphan must of course be provided for, but too much attention to beggars, vagabonds and criminals is very much like putting a premium on idleness, improvidence and crime. Very much, if not the greatest part, of the misfortune and need which the minister is zealously trying to succor, is the legitimate result of vices which society ought to rigorously repress. The man who spends his youth and manhood in absolute vagabondage has no just claim upon industrious people for support when old age or his vices have made him helpless. Charity may induce us to relieve his urgent needs, but be certainly can not expect us to take better care of him than the honest laborer is able to secure for himself by his own exertion, However this may be, the work initiated by the minister is an endless task and most naturally increase with the growth of population if preventive measures are not adopted The principal effort, in our opinion, should be to prevent the increase of these classes and to reduce their numbers as rapidly as possible. The memployed poor should be sent into the country to earn an honest livelihood by agriculture, schools should be created for the education of their children, and trades should be laught all who do not care to follow agriculture. Industrial schools are a prime necessity in every part of the country. If these agencies are properly developed, the next generation will not have so many paupers to care for as Minister Ferreira Vianna now has upon his hands

WE have so frequently called attention to the useless and absurd regulation regarding passports in Brazil that it would seem a waste of time and space to refer to the question again. The approaching adjournment of the General Assembly will perhaps permit the present cabinet to take cognizance of such questions as these, and we shall therefore venture to again call the attention of the government to the obsolete and absolutely unnecessary regulations still enforced by Biazil. As the requirement does not affect the revenue in any way, its enforcement is therefore of no advantage whatever to Brazil except for police purposes. In this lastnamed object, however, every one knows perfectly well that it never prevents the arrival or escape of any criminal. Within the archical or republican, must strive to term of our residence in this city a considerable number of notorious swindlers, of foreign nationalities, have practised their little games here and then quietly slipped away without the slightest difficulty in the matter of passports. It is only when a painstaking, law-abiding traveller comes along that the regulation makes its vexations power felt, for such people are generally scrupulous to meet all the requirements of the law. If the regulation requiring a police visé on passports were strictly enforced, or if it were instrumental in preventing the flight of swindlers and other criminals, then there would be less cause for complaint, but in reality the very reverse of this is true. It may be asserted that no criminal, with or without a passport, was ever prevented from leaving the country except through the action of some private individual who had legal cause for requiring his detention. view of the fact that the regulation is practically useless, why is its continuance necessary? To strangers it is a constant source of vevation, particularly when travelling within the country. Many of them come here without these documents, and they find at once that they can not travel from one Brazilian port to another without them and without have ing the police visé before purchasing their tickets. While one may travel from Rio to S. Paulo, and back, by land as often as he chooses, he can not do the same by water without a passport and the police visé. Now, will some one tell us why this distinction is made? And if there is no reason for it, why is the requirement enforced? In truth, the regulation is purely vexations and arbitrary, and were it not that the petty officials love the arbitrary power which it gives them, it would have been discontinued long ago,

THE question of modifying the oath came up in the Chamber on the 6th instant. under circumstances which tended to greatly complicate the real issues involved. new republican deputy from the 9th district of Minas Geraes, Dr. Monteiro Manso, on appearing to take his seat, declined to take the usual oath as it is contrary to his convictions. The matter was at once referred to the committee on rules which reported an amendment to the by-laws of the house excusing any one from the prescribed oath in case it is contrary to his beliefs. This amendment came up for discussion on the 10th and 11th, when a further amendment added the words "religious or political" after the word "heliefs" (crenças), in which form it was passed and Deputy Manso was permitted to take his seat. As the rule now stands, any deputy may decline to take the oath in case he can declare it contrary to his convictions, whether religious or political, from which we shall soon see the anomalous situation of a legislative hody so irregularly constituted that only a part has sworn to support the crown, constitution and laws, while another part has sworn to nothing at all. In the matter of the oath itself, it ought to have been modified in 1881 immediately after the adoption of the electoral reform law which made noncatholics eligible for election to the legislative assembly. That reform made the oath to support the state church inconsistent and reactionary, hence the clause in question should have been struck out at once. This was not done, and now it is suddenly brought up in connection with the political question of swearing to support the monarchy, and as the religious character of the outh is clearly indefensible, the two widely different issues are classed together and carried through with a rush. While the first is to be commended, we are not certain that there is any excuse whatever for the second. Every government, whether monprotect itself, and the government which jealously, acts upon this principle is entitled to respect, whatever may be it faults. The recent, action of the Chamber in excusing any person from the oath in case his convictions are opposed to the existing form of government, is clearly a measure of self-destruction. An open and avowed enemy of the crown may now take his seat and carry on an active revolutionary propaganda in the halls of legislation. There is no government so free where this would be permitted. Some form of oath, or alfirmation, should be required so that the legislator may be bound to support the state, the constitution and the laws. Il a man can not conscientiously take this, then his place is in the field at the head A revolution.

Some weeks ago we took occasion

mercial association of Porto Alegre in regard to the increased taxes on industries and professions. Since then the mercantile classes of Santos, Campos, Campinas, Macahé and numerous other places have resolved upon protests against these increased taxes, and in some cases to close their doors rather than pay them. Some of these protests are now before the government and a decision ought to be rendered in a very short time. Notwithstanding the opinion of Leroy Beanlieu to the contrary, Brazil is one of the most heavily taxed countries in the world. The economic conditions here are very peculiar and exceptional, and no just opinion can be given upon the economic state of the country without taking these into consideration. The French economist bases his opinion upon comparisons with various European countries, both in respect to gross expenditures and population, but neither one nor the other proves the points aimed at. Brazil is an enormous country in extent, only a small part of which is settled. A great part of its landed property is not taxed, and the great majority of its twelve millions population possesses no property, pays no direct taxes and produces nothing either for exportation or domestic consumption. Three-fourths of its revenue are raised through the customhouse, while four-fifths, at least, are derived from customs duties and the taxes levied upon mercantile houses and transactions. A great part of the population consumes but little of dutiable goods and pays nothing whatever toward internal taxes except the trifle imposed upon the tobacco they smoke. Hence they do not bear any share whatever in the taxes levied upon commerce. At a rough estimate, less than one-half, if not less than one-third, of the population contribute toward the payment of these taxes. Taking the aggregate appropriation for the current year, which is 159,500,000$ instead of the 141,500,000$ given by Leroy Beaulien, the average expenditure per capita of effective taxpayers is 261/2 milreis, while the estimated revenue from all sources, 148,-000,000$, gives an average of a little over 24 1/2 milreis. This means an annual tax contribution of over 21/2 pounds sterling from those liable to direct taxation and those consuming imported goods or producing exportable articles upon which a a customs tax can be levied. According to the last financial report the total official value of exports in 1884-85 was something over 226,000,000$. As the people live to a great extent on imported goods, the value of production for domestic consumption could not have been largehence an estimate of 300,000,000$ as the total value of a year's production is perhaps not far from correct. This represents an habitual idlers, etc. - are non-producers, It will be seen therefore that fully one half the product of the country is absorbed in taxation, and that the weight of this falls upon the mercantile classes who are expected to recomp themselves from an impoverished and, to a large extent, idle population. The merchants of these interior towns, who are more closely in contact with the people, know that taxation can not be increased without serious prejudice to themselves. They are paying more than their just share of public taxation, and they are likewise carrying a heavy load of indebtedness against the people of the country. To increase the price of goods means either more indebterlness, or decreased trade, for axpayers of Brazil cannot possibly stand mather imposition without serious pre-Adice. The opposition to these increased taxes on industries and professions, we are convinced, is not influenced by caprice, but by an honest belief that the burden can not be borne without suffering. It is an easy thing for officials and superficially informed economists to divide the aggregate tax by the total population (including men, women, children, sick, crippled, paupers, idlers and vagabonds), and then say that it is only a trille; but when the exaction is carried into effect and the non-taxpayers are eliminated, the case assumes a very different aspect, Brazil is practically one of the heaviest taxed countries in the world, considering her production and percentage of taxpayers, and it is full time that this fact should be recognized. Instead, therefore, of increasing taxition, the true policy is that of decreas-

PRESENTATION.

On 30th Ang., the day after the steamer Finance arrived in port from New York, a number of the cabin passengers went on board and presented Captain E. C. Baker with a handsome and appropriate (as the Captain is only a water drinker) plated service for iced water, consisting of tray, water jug, ice pail and two tumblers, all the articles having the Captain's monogram engraved thereon, while the jug bore further a suitable inscription.

A written testimonial signed by all the saloon passengers was at the same time presented to Captain Baker thanking him for his uniform kindness and courtesy during the voyage to Rio. The subscribers for the presentation service were:

RIO TETSUS CAMPINAS.

This match took place on the 7th and 8th inst. and resulted in favor of the home team. Rio having won the toss decided to go in, and at 11;45 sent in Messrs. Holman and Wadbrook to the bowling of Messis. Kennedy and Richardson. In the third ball of the first over and before any runs were made Mr. Holman was caught at the wickets. Mr. Jones then came in, runs were totted up last and not till the score had reached 41 did the next wicket average of 50$ per capita for that part of the fall. The next three wickets fell rapidly population paying taxes, a great part of and with the score at 52, Mr. Cox joined which -- women, children, incapacitated, Mr. Smith. Runs came fast and when the lunch bell stopped the game the telegraph marked 92 runs,

A Coph

Play commenced again at 2;20 p. m. but not until the figures had reached 121 did any wicket fall, and then Mr. Cox was caught. His partner was bowled directly after, having made 41 in excellent style and without giving a chance. Seven wickets for 121; the eight and ninth gave little trouble, but the tenth and last was well defended by Messrs. Fiz Hugh and Estill, the former being the first to retire with the score at 147.

After a short interval Messrs. Holman and Morrissy opened the bowling to the batting of Messrs. Richardson and Ferguson, The Campinas eleven were not fortunate in their batting; Messrs. Richardson and Williams being the only two whose scores reached double figures; and the first innings closed for 58 runs. On the following day the visitors followed in and owing to the good fielding of the Rio team (a rare thing indeed!) the whole side were out for 44 runs, of which Mr. Kennedy contributed 25 in excellent form.

The Campinas Club deserves all praise for its pluck in challenging the Rio Cricket Club. The S. Paulo cricketers had agreed to come to Rio last June to play the old game, S. Paulo versus Rio, and almost on the eve of the days fixed for the match sent up a wire backing out of the engagement. The Campinas Club knowing how unjust it was for the Rio men to be always going to S. Paulo offered to play the game and sent up an eleven to Rio where their pluck and good will were fully appreciated. The delight the Rio eleven had in securing the now legendary ''mug" was sincere, and pleasing to see.

Before leaving the ground the visitors received three hearty and well deserved cheers.

We subjoin the score of the game as well as of a "pick-up" match which took place after lunch on the second day.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

September 3.—In the Senate the session was entirely occupied in discussing the navai estimates, lint Barko de Cutegipe found time to real a telegram from a planter, who had been assaulted by a freedman, and who applied to the Senate for protection. In the Chamber, Detunity Games de Castro had a few more demands for indemnity in ex-slaveholders to present, and also complaints that the names of these mendiants are not published in the Dairdo Official. The tirputy for the 9th instruct of Mona Géraes, elected as a republicaq, near formally declared entitled to his seat. Deputies Chaves and Jusé Marcellan spake on the department of agriculture budget, but their remarks were of no general interest.

September 4.—In the Senate there was nothing of interest occurrent. In the Chamber there was some talk of a determination to force a vote on the question of indemnity, which, it was suppused, would be against the government. This was avoided by Deputy Henriques occupying the floor during the time that such a question could have been punjosed. Deputies Matta Machado, Jim, queira Ayres and Jinquim Pedru spoke in the department of agriculture estimates and furnished their serveral opinions on matters affecting the department.

September 5.—In the Senate Sis. Silveira Martins and Candiba de Oliveira had some sharp observations to make to the government respecting the removal of a judge in the province of Paraná. The Indige of the flepartment of marine as amended finally passed, and also that of the department of enquire; both must go lock to the Chamber. The disension of the justice estimates was puotpaned until the minister could be present. In the Chamber Deputy Rudicignes Person asked that a day he marked for asking the government certain questions relative to the late increase in taxation that has created much indignation in various localities. After a few remarks by Deputy Rudingues Alves the estimates of the department of agreed to were fainfly passed, with the annual-ments. Deputy Bezanat criticised the minister of finance on many points, and read figures to show that without considering credits voted the deficit in 1859 will be 35,000,000$.

September 6.—In the Senate the premier replied to the attacks made on the president of Paraná for removing a judge frum one district to another. Senator Silveira da Motta had also some remarks to make on the question, and it is to he further discussed m a future session. Its importance appears to arise frum an alleged unconstitutional act of the president, and the upposition attempts to make the calinet an accomplice. Senators Candido de Oliveira and Linn Durate spoke on the estimates of the department of justice. In the Chambre, a very lively scene was caused by the estimates of the department of justice. In the Chambre, a very lively scene was caused by the newly elected republican deputy from Minas Gernes refusing in take the usual anth. On motion of Deputy Genes de Castro a modification of the eath was accepted by the internal committee, which will, if passed by the Chambre, avoid all future difficulties, hoth religious and political. Deputy Ratishona made some general renarks to fill up the time destined and Deputy Lourenoo de Albuquerque analyzed the estimates of the general revenue of the empire.

September 10.—In the Senate Barão de Cotegipe

September 10.—In the Senate Barān de Cotegipe presented a fresh batch of demands for indemnity from slave owners, and stated that he pruposed to cuntimue his advocacy of the rights of these despoiled planters until action was taken on the question. Visconde de Ouro Preto occupred much valuable time in a political attack on the cabinet and this obliged the premier to occupy still more in a reply. The minister of justice replied to preceding speakers on his estimates. A curious remark was made; a judge somewhere in Goyaz was onlered by the neighbors to leave the town and the minister says that the trouble arose hecanse he was not married. Burfan de Cotegijne made a humoums attack on the minister of justice, and defended the late chief of police. Senatur Avila defended the late chief of police is cannot asked for police. In the Chamber nearly the inhole vession nas occupied in discussing the project to multify the onth requisite for taking a seat as deputy.

September 11.— In the Senate there was no sent as deputy. — In the Senate there was no session. In the Chamber Deputy Maciel reviewed the practice of parliamentary hodies, including New Guinea, as to the oath of an elected representative of the nation, and imposed the project presented by the officers of the Chamber to modify this. Deputy Zanan accupied considerable time, and said virtually modifie; the considers an oath a species of joke. Deputy Natural's attempt to instill a little regard for the constitution was not over-well received. The matification as its awearing in itemities was adopted; a deputy has no reason to obey any law, human or thrine, if his religious and publical ophinius are opposed to it. The test of the session was of no interest.

September 12.—In the Senate Sr. Silveira ila Motta presente i a project tending to harmanize the swearing in disenatos with that recently adopted in the Chamber. The minister of justice and Baña de Cotegipe liquidated some personal matters, which appear to have excited the risability of their ambience. In the Chamber Deputy Andrade Pigneira attacked the recent multification of the oath required of deputies and proposed its return to the committee; this was fost and the republican deputy for the 9th Minas district tonk his seat ambist appliance from the galleries. Deputies Mattisso Camara, Laurengia the Albuquerque, Silva Trartess and Rushigues Péxico pake ou the general revenue estimates, but tunched on no subject of interest that has not already come hefore the Chamber.

Septomber 13.—In the Senate Sr. Silveira Martins askeit whether the government had been consulted in regard to the negotiation of a foreign ban by the president of S. Paulo, and whether the operation had been authorized. The number of agriculture repited that the loan had been authorized by the provincial legislature, in the same manner as interest guarantees had been authorized. He was superised at the question of the senator, who themands automumy for the provinces; the foreign capitalists are aware that the responsibility is provincial, and the speaker saw no reason lar consulting the general government. Senator Silveira Martins replied that in effect the general government was the responsible deltar under international law. The question is likely to lead to lengthy discussions. The rest of the session was occupied by Visconde de Ouro Preto in analysing various acts of the minister of justice, and by the latter in justifying these. In the Chamber sauce personal matters ucentified the capital the capital part of the session, and the thiscussion of the general resente of the compiler by Deputies Adoms Penna, Marcin Ribeira and McDowell consumed the ladance of the time, the discussion being of fittle interest.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

-There were 78 deaths in Campus during the

- There were 120 deaths in Campinas during the month of Angust.

-There were 776 beef cattle killed in Santus during the month of July.

-The Minas immigration society is expecting to receive 2,000 immigrants during the current month.

—The province of Rio Grande do Sul received 5,33a immigrants in 1887, of which 4,355 were -The July receipts of the Parahylia custom house amounted to 55,622$695, and of the consulado 6,473$940.

—Defalcations in the provincial revenue offices of Manaos and Parintins, province of Amazonas, are concreted.

—Fike city of Manãos, Amazonas, is trying to look happy and prosperous under a double-harreled infliction of measles and small-pox.

—The president of the province of Pernambneo has recently authorized the publication of 18,000 copies of a descriptive notice of the powince.

—An Italian was arcested in Compinas a few days since who carried a knife with a 4a centimetre hlade—say 16 inches. Pretty good immigrant, that!

-The town of Macapá, on the Amazon, is suffering from both yellow fever and small-nux. Either one ought to be sufficient for an average town.

--The first meeting of the new S. Paulo Athletic Cluh took place in that city on the 9th inst. and was largely attended. The next meeting is announced for November 2nd.

—The Diario do Rio Grande estimates that the revenue receipts in the province of Rio Grande do Sul for the last half year will fall short of the official estimate by 1,000,010$.

—The Santos municipal enturell has resolved upon the opening of another lazaretto, owing to an increase in the epidemic of small-pix raging there. The appeals to Our Lady of Montserrate do not appear to have been heard, and the peuple are therefore paying the natural penalty of their insprudence.

—Bananal, in S. Paulo, is to have a fine racecourse, and it is safe to say that more money will be spent on it in one year than has ever been spent on the public school of the place.

—The August receipts of the S. Paulo postoffice were 12,252\(\frac{2}{5}\)650 for the city and 33.041\(\frac{2}{3}\)30 for the rest of the province, against 11,281\(\frac{2}{5}\)50 and 28,27\(\frac{2}{5}\)730 respectively in the same month of last year.

—The province of Minas has had an "immigrants guide" printed in Genoa in Italian. We trust that the poor emigrant has been duly informed that, as in S. Paula, the foreigner enjoys perfect immunity from small-pox.

—On the 1st inst, a haliff was found dead on the road to Rio Bonito province of Rio de Janeiro. From the examination made it appears he was thrown from his horse, fell on his mase and died from consequent hemorrhage.

-The Ypiranga manument commission reports an expenditure of 264,795\$747 up to the 31st nlt., leaving a cash hadance to their credit in the provinced treasnry of 26\$,310\$712, besides the 300,000\$ m apelices (ecently alwanced by the province.

—Lightning shows contemplation in the princince of Sta. Catharias. It strick a house at Garopaha and the only serious damage was the destriction of a hix of matches, and even so the hox was left. We would suggest sending that hox to the museum.

—A poor cating-house proprietor received a severe heating from two Spaciards in Pará one ilay last month. A complant was at once made to the police, but he was coully informed that it would cost him seventy add militeis to prosecute the ruffams.

—The meeting of business men in Campinas to take action against the new taxes on industries and professions was held in the 2nd inst. It is estimated that 2,000 people were present. It was manimumly resident to resist the collection of these increased taxes.

—A little family misunderstanding led to the killing of four persons to Parampeha, near Ouro Preto, Minns, in the night of the 29th nlt. One of the assassins was killed while the other, who killed three, was arrested. He is said to have killed 8 individuals!

—At a place called Gonvéa, near Diamantina, Minas Geraes, a man recently thought he was hewitched by an ohl woman his neighbor. To lirak he spell the old woman was heaten to death, her husband mortally and two of her children severely wounded by this enlightened Brazilian citizen.

--The city of Park is still trying to attain the proud connence of being the "Liverpool of America," but she finds it just a little difficult because of the world's antipathy to such perils as yellow-fever, small-park, heri-beri, etc. Why can not the authorities of that city do something to stamp out these contagious diseases?

—It is a enrious coincidence that the republican, repractism articles of "Nemo" in the Diario Pphalor of S. Paulo were suspended just about the time that a commende was conferred upon Dr. Martim Francisco. Surely "Nemo" could not have heen influenced by this tardy recognition of S. Paulo's just claims upon imperial layor.

—The Park expurts in July meInded 679.553 kilns. In rubher, valued at 1,234,419$208, 1,227, 499 kilos. of each, reduced at 794.09$8940; and 44,303 hectolitres at Brazil muts, valued at 83, 824$748. The expurts from Mandos the same munth were 101,496 kilos. of rubher (184,654$600) 33,439 kilos. of rucho (13,827$506), and 1,835 hectolitres of Brazil nuts (11,922$304).

—The sanitary authorities in S. Paulo are taking estandinary precentions against the spread of small-pux. A patient was remived to the learnetto a few days since in a special vehicle, during which process a few curious people were permitted to satisfy themselves that it was a genuine case, and then the attendants who had transported her from the house to the aubiliance, called a public carriage and fullowed after.

The people of Ceará are greatly exercised over the miraculous appearance of the Virgin Mary, the inlant Jesus and St. Joseph at Canoa, in that province. The apparation was seen by children, and the priests are lustily strengthening the hal-ucination and preparing to build a chapet on the spot. It is also said that the figure of Jesus bearing the cross was also seen. This is perhaps another reason for protecting and preserving a church capable of nonrishing such absurd superstitions and frauds.

—Hereafter when Manuel Pousa hears one of his bahies crying at might he will get out of heil before striking a match. He did not feel like doing this last Saturday night, and the result was he was midely awakened by a fire among some cluthes on a chair by the hed-side among which he had carelessly through the match. And the worst of it all was that he had yook in one of the pockets, a part of hich was telestroyed and a great part of the rest so much hornt that he will box a large discount in

You can't get a selfish, suspicious, falsely-cultrated, sensual coward tre don't the advantage of shooting his enemy in the back!

- l'elegraphic news of the death of Gen. Domin — Felegraphic news of the beath of Gen, Domin-gus Sarmiento, ex-president of the Argentine Republic, at Assancion, Paraguay, on the 11th inst, were received here on the 13th. Gen, Sar-mento was one of the most progressive and enhaltened presidents which the Argentines have had, and to bin is they muce than any other one man, the progress which that country is making in educational matters. He was over 80 years of age, and was oraguaged in some disbunatic mission to Paraguay at the time of his death.

-Our Montevideo colleague, The Express, took occasinn on the 25th ult., to salute his Uruguayan occasion on the 25th ut., to salute his Uruguayan friends on the anniversary of their declaration of independency, and to congratulate them on their profitted inhependency. Very properly, however, our colleague finitents to mention their personal independence and freedom from queression. Uruguay is in longer ruled by Spain, but have much her people have gained through this political separation is a delasticable question.

-The catholic colleagues of the priest Castro Rodriguez, who recently murdered his wife and child in a most beatharous manner, are trying to find a means of escape for the fuendish wheth by proving his marriage invalid, as the Catholic church claims jurisdiction over apostates as noolly elaims jurialization over apostates as well as communicants. It makes one's blood lingle to hear sane people trying to defeat the ends ill justice in such a way, and may be accepted as a coinclusive print of the utter and absolute influences of that church to occupy the dominant position accorded it in South America.

—Our colleague of The Express will kindly permit us in call "republicanism" here in Brazil, or in the Kire Plane, a "disease," or a "minia," or anything else that currectly describes the aliment. We are too sincere republicants to wish realt these tomators by a name which implies political equality, freethou of conscience, speech and action governed always by respect for the smillar rights of rithers, whethence to law, and a genuinely pupular aspiration to preserve order, punish crime and develop political malitutions by purely legal methods. When we see the so-called "republicans" of Sould America governed by principles such as these, then we shall find a better and more appropriate term for the publical faith which they profess. If we were fools cought to take men for what they choose to call themselves, we should be looking for habs over the heads of a gent many. -Our colleague of The Express will kindly

-The great big hanner [we almost wrote rag] that was supernied on the Sugar Loaf to welcome the Emperir, is to be deposited in the Natural Museum, the why or wherebre we decline to express an opinion on. Its associations will probably locate it in the geological department.

-The good people of Petropolis were so rejoiced — The good people of retropous were so rejoiced at seeing the Emperor again, that they gave him a houquet of artificial flowers. Are not artificial flowers and gold visiting cards being "run into the ground?" Vou can not even "spout" the card, if your name is engraved on it.

-On the 6th a man was going to take a tin o guava jam to a sick friend at the Misericordia huspital. He gut on the step of a tram-car, fell off, broke his leg, and he and the jam huth went to the Inspital. Moral—never carry jam to a sick friend by tam: take a thlury the Imspital, friend by tram pital. Moral—never i tram ; take a tilhury.

On the 5th inst, the minister of agriculture informed the president of the province of Santa Catharina that the demands of that province for immigrants would be met when the government executed the contract for the introduction of immi-grants into the whole of the empire.

—According to a Hawas telegram of the toth inst., Preshlent Cleveland has just presented him-sell as a presidential candidate. Our exchange-inform us that he was nominated at St. Leuis about three months ago, but perhaps the Hawas agency is better informed.

--- Another disturguished citizen has left us-The artist, Dr. Pedro Americo, left for Europe to compose a great picture in commemoration of abolition. It distinguished Brazilians are leaving us in the proportion noted by the native press, there will soon be no one left under the flag but the vulgar herd.

-There seems to be an alarming increase in the taste for hetting on races here. The lutteries were had enough, but we are informed that young clerks and even well-consulered merchants, are dropping and even well-consulered merchants, are dropping entirely too much immey on the iniumerable races that are now taking place. Roulette is had, lotteries worse, but horse-racing, as a speculation, must be considered worst.

-A system of city telegraph service is to be organized. Stations will be established in various organized. Stations will be established in various parts of the city where telegrams will be received for transmission over the government lines and those of such railways as are in communication with these. Mr. Stater cannot very well lay a cable in the Larangeirax river, and how the government line will have a monopoly.

-According to official figures the concessions granted to various planters for the introduction o granted to various planters for the introduction of immigrants under contract huring 1837, comprised 4,609 (amilies and 5,160 inilivificals). During the first six mouths of the current year these concessions were lor 9,624 families. Mearly three fourths of the applications for families, were from the province of Rin de Janeiro. The immigrants received under these concessions have their passages paid by the government.

-A circus rider of the feminine gender considered —A circus ider of the feminine gender considered she had a right to ride—well, astrile, in public and dress in masculine attire. Our easily shamed police, who allow materialistic romances of the most disgnating character to be shown in any window, calls the circus-rider to account, and does not get the best of it either. Now, there is no law to prevent venerable looking ecclesiavies going around our streets in petiticoats, and why should not extremes meet, and a circus-rider turn out in unmentionables?

-What is more suggestive of implicit hope, than a beggar seated on the step of a pawn-broker's shop? We saw this ourselves.

-The proprietor of a hotel on Sta. Thereza publishes in the Fornal on the 12th a moving address to a guest. The inference is that the guest paid his bill without demur.

-The medical and surgical congress celebrated its first session on the evening of the 11th. The congress is formed of Brazilian medical men and will discuss matters interesting the profession.

-The ferry company proposes to shortly com mence a passenger service between this city and Piedade, touching at Paquetá, It seems curious that the idea was not put into execution years ago

-There has been a beautiful picture exposed in the Rua do Onvidor recently. A young woman had commenced dressing, but after she had put on a pair of sky-lilue stockings and a bracelet, she fell

-It appears from some remarks in one of local colleagues, that republicanism is stimulated hy mothers, wives and daughters of planters, wh have never had to do any work until the slave were declared free.

-It appears to us that there are entirely too many unknown corpses found floating around the liny. Every case of "found drownded" should be examined with the strictest attention. Hardly a day passes that the body of some unknown person is not sent to the Morgne.

-On the 11th mst. Dr. João Carlos de Simza Ferreira formally assumed the chief-editorship of the Jornal do Commercio. Popular with all, and with some 20 years experience as right hand man of the Jornat, the proprietors could not have made a hetter selection than that of Dr. Sonza Ferreira.

- All the candidates for honors in having secured abolition for Brazil are not yet catalogueil. A Milan journal furnishes the name of a gentleman who has been active in the question. What sur-prises us is that, after the fact, there appears to have been no defenders of slavery in Brazil; as a concession we may except Deputy Andrade Fi-

-On the murning of the 10th inst, the police found an Austrian named Zubele, near the Campo de Acclamação, in a pool of blood. He managed de Acclamação, in a poel of blood. He managed to make a declaration that he had been assanited and robbed by two unknava men, who had wounded him upon his resisting. He was transported to the Miscricordia hatt deil shintly after reaching the hospital. What can the police be about?

The cable this morning announces a collisin at sea near the Canary Islands on the night of the 13th inst, between the Italian steamer Sud-America and the French steamer La France, resulting in a loss of 87 lives. The Sud-America was lost, while the damages to the La France were slight. The former was homeward hound with 261 passengers and a crew of 60; the latter was ontward bound with 4,300 inmigrants on hoard, of which Soo were fur Brazil.

-Without any malice we may say that the articles signed by Mous. Beaulieu, in the Gazeta de Notichis of the 2nd and 3rd inst., appear very much like the report of a surgeon and physician upon a submitted case. Mous, Beaulien has been asked to report on Brazil's financial malady, and either the case was insufficiently explained, or the French specialit's regulation is lased on very filmsy foundations. We naturally incline to the first broathers. flimsy boundation first hypothesis.

-On the 8th there was inaugurated here a lodging linuse for the poorer classes, which was organized, and very much to their credit he it said, organized, and very much to their credit he it said, by four Portagnese subjects at an expense of about 2,000$. The philanthropic organizers turned it over in the minister of justice, who at once christened the asylum "Our Lady of the Nativity." It would have been graceful, at least, to have acknowledged in its name, those of its founders. The asylum has now 40 heds.

-Independence day, the 7th inst., was celebrated with great enthusiasm. The Emperor, Empress, Princess Imperial and Comte d'Eu, with conjuress, frincess imperial and Comte d'En, with the centr, attended a Te-Deum, at which the Bishop of Ro officiated. After this a levée was held, at which the diplomatic corps, committees from the Senate and Chamber, etc., were present. The Internuel on the Senate and official of the diplomatic corps. There were paratless of school childrens, salvues of artillery, and dynamite a-bumb-inations in adoundance.

-What has become of that promise to have a census taken in this city?

-Decree No. 10,030 dated on the 7th inst. business in the empire.

-We regret to note that our Argentine colleagues failed to put in an appearance on the 7th.

One visiting commission evidently swamped them.

-The amiliences of Coquelin's farewell perormances were not numerous, but are said to have heen very select.

-A colleague says that Coquelin's secretary is to receive a decoration. It would be difficult understand why, but we are now getting somewhat accustomed to these eccentricities.

-The first public prosecutor here knows Latin The documents of a case were submitted to him recently for decision, and he at once passed them with the sentence: fatt justita. It seems a pily he had not added runt cedum, so as to round out the period, you know.

-That touching description of the conversations — that fourning description of the conversations between Dunnas and Coquelin as to the latter's accepting the principal character in L'Ectangère, was twenty-lour hours too late. Hail the Diarie published it the day before, we have no doubt that it would have filled the theatre.

it would have filled the theatre.

—It appears that the Argentine Republic only asks two things of the French Republic. These are labor and capital. Now, we would be glad to compromise on exactly the same basis. If we could get same one to furnish us workmen, and at the same time lead us the money to pay the wages, we would sign a boad to never do another stroke of work for the rest of our lives.

-We understand that some ten families of factory nperatives, brought out from England to work i therefore, a fought out from Longhard to work in the Petropolish, have been so lauly treated by the pulice and Brazilian employé that they have been compelled to leave the place. Some have been very bally injured. The police appear to have been the aggressors. We hear an investigation is to be made.

-An affair that brings anything but credit to —An affair that brings anything but credit to one of the capitalists of this city. Sr. José Augusto Laranja, has been reported by the police. A hill accepted by a firm here feil this on the 24th ultrand was the drawer and endorser, and teclared his signature to be counterfeited. The experts deviate against him, and the acceptures say they differed in Juny a part of the acceptures say they differed in Juny a part of the second cast of the bill and extend the balance but Sr. Laranja objected, and appears to have perjuted himself.

—We lorgat to aumonnee, in our last issue, the departme of Dr. Ladislân Netto, director general departure of Dr. Ladislan Netto, director general of the Museo Nacional, on the Hamburg steamer Curtiple, to attend the fortheoming congress of Americanists at Berlin. We trust that our failure to announce this impurtant event will cause no unconvenience to our scientific friends on the other side. We may now add, for their private information, that Dr. Ladislao is one of the most eminent Brazilian specialists living. Nominally he is the director of the hotanical department of the museum, but practically he is anthropologist, archaeulngist, Egyptologist and curiologist of that institution—and his knowledge is equally extensive and comprehensive in all of them.

AN IMPORTANT CHURCH ORGAN. ISATION

AN IMPORTANT CHUNCH ORGAN.

ISATION.

On the 6th mat, the three Preshyteries of the Preshyte ian Church established in this empire, viz: that of Rio de Janeiro, connected with the morthern hranch of the thoreth in the United States, and those of Campinas and Western Minas and of Pernambnec, connected with the southern branch of the same church, met at the Preshyterian Church in this city and, duly authorized by the highest cauris of their respective churches, solemnly organized the "Synot of the Preshyterian Church in Brazil." The basis of doctrine and government lad previously heen adopted by the said Preshyteries and were solemnly ruified, adopted and salascrified to by the members present.

The presiding officer of the convention was Rev. G. W. Chamberlain, of S. Paulo, who among those present was the first Preshyterian minister undined in Brazil, and its secretary was Rev. J. W. Dalmey, of Jundiahy. The semon prepared for the occasium was delivered by Rev. E. Lane, of Campina, after which Rev. A. L. Blackford read the constituting act, previously agreed upon, which was rainfied by a standing vote. The following permanent officers were elected: Moderator, A. L. Blackford read the constituting act, previously agreed upon, which was rainfied by a standing vote. The following permanent officers were elected: Moderator, A. L. Blackford; Vice Muderator, E. Lane; Permanent Clerk, M. P. B. de Carvalhosa; and Temporary Clerks, E. C. Pereira and J. B. Linna.

On the evening of the 7th elequent addresses of salutation to the newly organized Synoid were felivered by Rev. Dr. J. Aspinwall Hodge and George E. Knox who represented the Preshylerian chirches in the United States for this purpose, and by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Granhlery, Brup propose, and by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Granhlery in the United States for this purpose, and by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Granhlery in the United States, and from the General Alliance of the Reformed Linuches recently convened in London.

In subsequent estations the Synoid organized the necessary commi

Butto Prediat: Exposição aprisentada di Directeria e Conselho Fiscal. A statement of the Director-Secretary upon the influence of the abolition law of 13th May regarding the interests of the bank. It is his opinion that the law has serionsly prejudiced the loans made by the bank on real estate by destroying the labor element which made these estates productive. He has apparently un consfidence in free labor, nor in the energy of the planters. The slave was the corner-stone of Brazlian industry and wealth. He admits however that the bank lost nearly 455,000$, on the liquidation of 13 estates, valued at about 925,000$, up to 1836, willin the period of slave labor, from which it would appear that even slavery has not been able to protect its interests.

within the period of slave labor, from which it would appear that even slavery has not been able to protect its interests.

Auxilias & Lavousa; by Dracon. Rio de Janeiro: Typ. Central, 1888. A series of a leading the protect of the control of the series of the present status of the existing credit foncier banks, and the necessity of advancing further slat to planters through their agency. The writer hecieves that the actual condition of the constraint within the persent a reorganization of these credit institutions, and that, as the planter must receive money to harvest his crops, their agency must be employed. He estimates the amount required to meet the exigencies of the moment may be placed at 16,000,000 $to 20,000,000. The advisability of leaving the planter to his own resources does not enter into the argument.

O Padas, a Mulhae e o Confessionario; by expadre Chiniquy. Purto: Typ. le José da Silva Mendonça, 1887. A translation from the 24th English edition of Falher Chiniquy's tamous work on "Priest, Woman and Confessional." A narrative of the evils and errors of the Catholic Church in enforcing celibacy in the priesthool. It is a book which should be widely circulated in Brazil, where the vices exposed are a thousand times—tensified. What was secretly practiced in Canada, is here openly practiced; what is there condemned on exposure, is here condoned. The vices of the priests in Brazil are so notorious, that the incidents elated by Father Chiniquy will appear very tame in comparison. His arguments, however, ought to arrest attention.

in comparison. His arguments, however, ought to arrest attention.

The Anglo-Brazilian Garland; compiled by Jasper L. Harben. Rio de Janeiro: B. L. Garnier, publisher, 1888. "A collection of short letters and descriptions on a variety of useful and instructive subjects," according to a new programme for public instruction in this city. This volume is compiled for classes in English and is designed to give them useful information as well as well selected exercises in reading. A serious fault of the book, however, is the omission of the author's name in connection with the selection, for the compiler should seek to familiarize the student with authors as well as subjects. Thirty-two pages of the Garland are taken from the Innal-Book of Rio de Janeiro published at this office, but the only indication of this is to be found in the preface. While the purposes of the compiler and publisher are good and praiseworthy, it is to be regrettent that a little more care and taste were not expended upon the book.

—The Banco Commercial do Rio de Janeiro has appointed a representative committee to apply for permission to open branches in Portugal.

—The auditors of the Bank of Brazil have tendened their resignations in consequence, we suppose, of the action taken at the recent meeting of the shareholders. It would be interesting to know what has on suddenly stanched the bottom of an of Macable and Campor railway makes the bottom over 1405 to 804 per share makes an observer shiver.

—On the 9th inst. it was made public that the province of Bahai land raised, through Viscondie de Figueiredo's agency, a loan for $600,000 at 197 per cent. Interest is 5 and sinking fund 1 per cent.

On the 13th the English Bank of Rio de Janeiro, Limited, announced that it was prepared to receive deposits of sover-cians, for periods of not less than six months, repayable in the same coin, and t qallow 4 per cest, per antum on same.

—At the meeting of the shareholders of the Rank of Pazali on the 6th the arrangement under with the government for the distribution of aid to planters was approved, and a committe appointed to present a reform of the statutes of the hank, with a view to finither operations of a similar character.

—The shareholders of the Banco Mecranil de Santos have decided to increase the capital of the hank from 1,000,000$. This bank was a very important factor in the carlier days of Santos commercial improvement, that does not seem to have allogether accompanied the increased movement of the port.

MARKET REPORT.

Rio de Janeiro, 14th September, 1888

Exports.

Coffee.—The activity hectofore noticed in our market lead continued up to a day or two ace, when as it appeared that the secessities of expoters were in excess of our daily supply, helders—or to be tastler more correct, factors—seem to have so considerably advanced their ideas, that hissiness has become more rectricted, and at this writing the market unity be considered under quiet, but very firm. There are various explanations of the high range of proises recently naid by exporters, the most important of which, it appears to us, seems to be a decadedly injudicious amount of firm others from this side, based upon the generally considered invertible increase in our receipts. It would have been a fair hasis to calculate upon, this increase of supply, were not not becoming more and more apparent, that a change in the marketing of orifice has occurred. Planters have now to pay their labores, and consequently are likely to havest all their crups before no coeding to prepare therefor market, for in this manner wages can be reduced, as fewer "hands" are required to prepare to be an arrival of the companies of our blockers, and consequently are likely to havest all their crups before proceeding to prepare therefore market, for in the heavy of the property of the control of the control of the highest many property of the Coffee,-The activity herctofore noticed in our market
